

History

Core course outcome

HIS1B01 The Trends in Historiography	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Develop a sense of historical writing● Understand the philosophical base of history● Inculcate the habit of evaluating historical writings● Instill the spirit of enquiry
HIS1B02 Trends in Indian Historiography	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Recognize the philosophical base of Indian history● Acquire the sense of historical writing● Promote a sense of historical writing of our land
HIS1B03 State society and civilization in the Ancient World	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● To analyse the nature and behavior of pre-literate and non-literate people of the world in the early period.● Students will be familiarized with various societies and their achievements
HIS1B04 State and society in Early India	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Acquire knowledge about the patterns social life existed in India during the early period.● Students can learn cultural changes and influence of geographical and climatic conditions.● . It enables them to analyses the progress achieved by the people in different periods
HIS1B05 Medieval world : State and Society	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Enable the students to understand about the nature of medieval European society● To understand the contributions of Arabs civilization● Help to understand about the various ideologies of that time
HIS1B06 State and society in Medieval India	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To understand the Islamic culture and its expansion.• To understand the contributions of Persian and Turkish rulers in the realm of administration, trade, monetary system, law and order.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To examine the changes in the outlook toward religious-reform movements,
HIS5B07 Kerala Society and Culture: Ancient and Medieval	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will learn a brief narrative of historical events of the growth of Kerala from a geographical division to a political entity • Students will perceive the knowledge a chronological framework of the history from the very early age itself • Students will observe the significance of various source materials for the reconstruction of Kerala history and the they will also learn to distinguish between primary and secondary sources • Students will comprehend the development of various political setup in the history of Kerala
HIS5B08 History of Medieval India	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Helps to understand the political changes of India in the medieval period. • to understand the Islamic culture and its expansion. • .to understand the contributions of Persian and Turkish rulers in the realm of administration ,trade, monetary system, law and order. • changes in the outlook toward Religious-Bhakti movements, Foundation of Ibadat Khana, Din illahi ,Sufism etc. • Architectural contribution of Sultanate and
HIS5B09 History of Modern India	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enable the students to recognize the socio economic and political conditions of pre European era in India • Identify the methods and tactics adopted by the british to control Indian political and economic life • Develop practical skills in the study and understanding of historical events in national movement • Enable the students to aware about the events leads making of Indian constitution and its application in Indian democracy
HIS5B10 History of Modern World	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will understand the major events, personalities and turning points in the history of modern world

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Students will correctly realize the developments in different parts of the world and its impact on the whole world ● Students will evaluate how philosophical, political, scientific and religious ideas have influenced the past and potentialities of such ideas in future. ● Students will identify historical processes that shape individuals and communities, developments and under developments in different parts of the world.
HIS6B11 History of Modern Kerala	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Student will recognize the historical events under colonialism and its development towards modern period ● Student will understand and evaluate different historical ideas, various arguments, and points of view about Kerala history
HIS6B12 Contemporary India	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Contemporary issues faced by India ● Political Changes after Independence ● Functions of Our Constitution ● Parliamentary democracy and its various wings ● Changing scenario of Indian socio economic field
HIS6B13 Contemporary Kerala	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Students will identify Contemporary environmental changes and threats in Kerala ● Students will learn Socio Political issues in present Kerala ● Students will perceive cultural depictions and institutionalization of culture
HIS6B14 Gender Studies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Gender identity and representation in historical evolution ● Student will understand gender as social being than biological entity ● Students will perceive Theories of Gender Discourse ● Students will recognize women struggles and their participation in social movements

HIS6E01 Principles and methods of Archaeology	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Students will learn the scientific method, they can easily understand about categorizing of relics● Students will develop knowledge about antiquarianism and to realize the importance of heritage .
HIS6B15 Course Work -Dissertation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Students will find, interpret, and use primary sources appropriately analyze the context in which the sources were created● Students will able to differentiate primary and secondary sources● Students will quote the sources accurately and effectively● Students will develop knowledge of the chronology, narration, geographical features, major events, cultural heritage, personalities and turning points of the history of their local area● Students will present orally their research in an organized, coherent, and compelling fashion through viva voce